

Meeting of The Chinatown Coalition (TCC)

Thursday, April 10, 2014

Attendees: Barbara Rubel, Jessie Zimmerer, Ayanna Pressley, Joan Abbot, Vivien Wu, Chutze Chou, Kun Chang, Nancy Liu, Ziyu Zhou, Sherry Dong, Carolyn Rubin, Jesse Brackenbury, Bet Har Wong-Chan, Shirley Mark, Helen Chin-Schlichte, Richard Goldberg, Mark Liu, Chloe Poon, Kate Chang, Enoch Liao.

Meeting held at Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center
Notes taken by Enoch Liao, TCC Co-Chair

MEETING MINUTES

- 1. Project Update: Tremont Village Rehabilitation by Angie Liou, Director of Real Estate, Asian Community Development Corporation
Presented update on much needed improvements to an affordable housing complex.

- 2. Legislative Update by Ayanna Pressley, Boston City Councilor-At-Large
Councilor Pressley updated on various initiatives:
  - Working on Committee on Healthy Women, Families & Communities
  - Liquor license reform
  - Trauma support services
  - Sex & Health education for Boston Public Schools
  - Day of Empowerment for Survivors of Sexual Violence and Our Allies on Saturday, April 26, 2014.
  - For more information contact Councilor Pressley's office at 617-635-4217

- 3. Adult Education Update: Chinese Progressive Association
Pong Louie presented an overview of the ESL and citizenship classes. For more info see www.cpaboston.com

- 4. The Greenway Conservancy is Hiring
Jesse Brackenbury, the new Executive Director, announcement that they are hiring. See www.rosekennedygreenway.org/jobs.

- 5. South Cove Manor
Pleased to announce that their new facility, the South Cover Manor Rehab Center Quincy Point is almost completed. Ribbon cutting ceremony on Tuesday, April 22 @ 10am. Update by Helen Chin-Schlichte.

- 6. WGBH's AAPI Heritage Month Celebration. Save the date: May 22, 2014
- 7. Boston Chinatown Neighborhood Center currently accepting applications
... for adult education programs. These classes fill up, so apply soon. All classes are free.
- 8. CPA's 10th Annual Bike-A-Thon
Taking place on May 31, 2014 at 9am. See www.cpaboston.org for more information.